

PRE - SEASON TEAM SURVEY

IS YOUR TEAM AT RISK FOR HAZING?

Listed below are examples of initiation rites that have been used by sport teams as a way of building team spirit. Have team members check the appropriate box: Yes – to acceptable activities and with a No – for unacceptable activity	Yes	No
Attending off campus pre-season training camp
Acting as personal servant to players off the field, court
Participating in excessive calisthenics not related to a sport
Dressing up for team functions, nice clothing or uniforms
Keeping a specific grade point average
Taking an oath or signing a contract of standards
Yelling, cursing, or swearing at new team members
Consuming extremely spicy/disgusting concoctions
Doing volunteer community service
Wearing embarrassing clothing
Tattooing, piercing, head shaving, or branding
Depriving oneself of food, sleep or hygiene
Consuming large amounts of Alcohol
Being required to associate with specific people, not others
Completing a ropes course or team trip
Pairing up veteran players as mentors to new team members
Team dinners at someone's home or going out for pizza as a team
Vandalizing private property
Coaches rarely supervise our locker room		